

Farm protests, a breakdown in farmer-state trust

The situation of unrest, like many other from the recent past, forces (and urges) each of us to take a step back and reflect on one of the nation's structural failings

Deepanshu Mohan, DEC 09 2020

Chandigarh: Police stop farmers during their protest march against the Center's new farm laws, in Chandigarh, Tuesday, Dec. 8, 2020. Various farmer unions today called for a nationwide strike demanding repeal of the agri laws. Credit: PTI Photo

As one writes this in the dawn of a new morning, parts of Delhi remain still engulfed in darkness, clouded with barricades, with its borders blocked by farmers who are lying down across the highways, protesting against the new farm laws.

The situation of unrest, like many other from the recent past, forces (and urges) each of us to take a step back and reflect on one of the nation's structural failings - a broken 'kisan-sarkar' contract.

Read more at: <https://www.deccanherald.com/opinion/panorama/farm-protests-a-breakdown-in-farmer-state-trust-925195.html>